If you are looking for a needle in a haystack.....you may have just found it! This rare find of a home is full brick with the master suite on the main level. The great room is oversized with a vaulted ceiling. There are so many storage options and with a 3 car garage and maybe you can buy that boat that you are dreaming about! The kitchen is large with Bosch appliances. An eat in area overlooking the gorgeous private backyard. A formal dining room and a living room or office space adds to a little separation. With a little updating this wonderful property will bring you and your family a lot of enjoyment!
